ANNUAL SESSION.

Twelfth Yearly Meeting of the National Duroc-Jersey Record Association.

The twelfth annual meeting of the National Duroc-Jersey Record Association convened in the parlors of the Grand Pacific hotel, Chicago, Tuesday evening, Dec. 1, 1903, being called to order by President C. C. Keil, of Ladora, Ia., at 7:45 p. m. There were present about sixty members of the association and the representatives of several of the leading stock papers of the country. Mr. Keil welcomed the breeders and friends in a short address, expressing his appreciation of the fact that so many were present. He said he felt highly honored that he was called upon to preside over such a body of men and assured them that he would endeavor to do his best as presiding officer. He warmly thanked the retiring board for their aid during the past year and told the assembly how harmonious the year's business with the board had progressed. He spoke of the very prosperous year the association had enjoyed and the hope of still better years to come. He then called for the annual report of the secretary and treasurer, and Mr. Evans presented the following:

GENTLEMEN OF THE NATIONAL DUROC-JERSEY RECORD ASSOCIATION:

It gives me great pleasure to submit for your inspection and comment the twelfth annual report of the association's business. Like all but two of the preceding annual reports it contains every encouragement that an association could hope for. Only twice in the nearly thirteen years of our existence has the annual report been in any way discouraging, and even in those years, when business in every line was depressed, we had much to give us hope for the better years that have followed. Ten or eleven annual reports of prosperous years have about exhausted the English at the command of your secretary in discussing the work for the years that have been nothing but success added to success, and we find but little to say aside from putting before you the facts and figures as they appear from the records.

Some comparisons, however, may not be out of the way and bring to your mind more clearly what a wonderful growth the association has made in the last five years. In January, 1889, we held a meeting in this city with sixteen persons present and many of them not members. The receipts for that year were less than $2,400. This year with one-half month taken from the year we have receipts aggregating almost $12,000. At that time we had a balance of $800, and with the closing of this year, the surplus reaches almost $7,000. In that period of time we have issued seven volumes, aggregating over 5,000 copies and have recorded nearly 35,000 pedigrees. We had in 1899 two hundred members and today more than one thousand. During the year closing with the annual meeting in January, 1899, we sold 9,000 blanks to recorders and this year about 72,000. New states are being added to our already large circle and it does seem that there is no limit to the widening horizon of the Red hog or of this association.

The swine shows during the year have found more than the usual quota of Durocs on hand and they are receiving the long deferred honor due them as mortgage lifters. Our Kansas City show and sale proved very successful and new members and new breeders are already coming to the front with inquiry as to recording, as to membership and as to the real superior quality of the Durocs. While there may be some difference of opinion regarding the question, the argument that a breed of swine or of any other animal for that matter becomes more popular through the show ring than through any other source, I attribute much of the rapid growth in favor of our breed to the fact that the breeders have come out to the state and International and county shows and have taken deep interest in presenting to the spectators the good points of their swine. I believe the little money, comparatively, that the association has spent in the show ring has done great good to the Durocs, and what is good for the Durocs is, without doubt, good for the association. The argument against offering prizes at these shows has been largely undermined during the last three years. It was said that the money would be taken largely by two or three individuals and no great good done the association or the breed. A glance at the winners of last year's International and the Royal this year will answer that completely, to say nothing of the added argument when you see the list of those who won at state fairs throughout the Central states.

Volume IX was finished in January, Volume X in June and Volume XI will be sent to members this month. Enough entries have already been received to insure the closing of Volume XII before the middle of December, and it will be issued as soon as possible thereafter. The average rate of pedigrees recorded for the eleven and a half months just closed is a little above forty per day. No one who has not visited the office of a recording association has any idea what that means alone, to say nothing of correspondence and blanks to handle and a multitudinous mass of crooked pedigrees to decipher and straighten out for anxious patrons and breeders. The proverbial patience of Job wouldn't stand the test many moons. Yet withal the members for the most part have been so considerate in excusing errors that seem to creep in under the most careful scrutiny that life in the secretary's office isn't by any means the most trying that could be found. The work has grown to such dimensions that it can scarcely be expected that the secretary return your certificates by the next mail after receiving them. They must necessarily take their turn and sometimes this means several days. We believe, however, that no pedigree has remained in our office a week unrecorded this year unless there was some question of eligibility or error in the writing of it.

Everything points to an even more busy year coming than the one just closed and I congratulate the members of this association on being connected with so live an organization, and on being interested in a breed of swine that is making such great advancement. Let the good work go on undiminished and let every effort be for the upbuilding of the association.

El Paso, Ill., Nov. 30, 1903.

J. C. WOODBURN,
H. B. LOUDEN.

Report unanimously adopted.

Mr. Andrews, of Iowa, moved that the capital stock be increased by the addition of 500 shares at $10 each. The motion was seconded and after some discussion regarding the manner of getting the vote, the secretary was instructed to select an assistant and call the roll and ascertain the number of shares represented by person or proxy. The secretary and Mr. Doty, of Illinois, took the roll and ascertained that there were represented by person or proxy 500 shares of stock. 493 of which voted for the increase of stock and 7 against the increase. President Keil announced that more than two-thirds majority of the stockholders had voted for an increase and ordered that the stock be issued.

President Keil called for nominations for place for next annual meeting. Mr. Louden, of Nebraska, presented the advantages of Lincoln, the capital of his state, and asked the Eastern breeders to give them the meeting once as so many of the association's membership were west of the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers, and Lincoln would be as handy a place for a majority of the members as could be found. Mr. Russell, of Nebraska, warmly seconded Mr. Louden's motion. Mr. Beauchamp, of Missouri, presented St. Louis and the Exposition as a splendid place for the meeting of 1904, and Mr. Morine, of Illinois, moved that Chicago be again chosen. A vote by ballot was called for. Messrs. Failor, of Iowa, and Doty, of Illinois, were appointed as tellers. In counting the ballot it was found some had used proxies and some had not, and the president ruled that the ballot be not counted and that an understanding be reached regarding the use of the proxies. After some discussion it was ruled that it would be illegal to refuse the use of the proxies if the holders of them desired so to do. The vote resulted in favor of Lincoln by a large majority.

Communications from Chief F. D. Coburn, of St. Louis Exposition, and Mr. W. H. Weeks, manager of the American Royal show at Kansas City, regarding the association's assistance in these stock shows were read by the secretary. Mr. Cutler, of Illinois, moved that the board use its united influence in getting from the various state appropriations the proper proportion for Duroc-Jersey classes. A number of recommendations along this line were offered and respectfully referred to the new board for action. Mr. Jones, of Indiana, moved that $1000 be appropriated for the various shows of 1904, $500 to be used in St. Louis Exposition. Amended by Mr. Cutler, of Illinois, to $2000. Amendment lost. Original motion prevailed.

Mr. VanDoren, of Illinois, moved that a dividend of 25 per cent. be declared. Motion lost.

Mr. Andrews, of Iowa, addressed the meeting regarding the arduous work of the secretary and urged that he should be well paid, for the association had wonderfully gained in business and there was no doubt would increase more during the coming year. He moved that the board be recommended to fix his salary at $1500 in addition to $250 clerk hire. Carried.

The miscellaneous business being disposed of President Keil called for nominations for president for the ensuing year. Mr. Jones, of Indiana, nominated Mr. J. C. Woodburn, of Maryville, Mo. Mr. Aikins, of Illinois, nominated Mr. Green McFarland, of Missouri. The latter withdrew in favor of Mr. Woodburn, and the election of Mr. Woodburn was made unanimous, the secretary being instructed to cast the ballot for him.

Mr. Woodburn thanked the members for the honor conferred upon him and promised to spend his best efforts for the advancement of the association and the breed.

On motion of Mr. Failor, of Iowa, the question of vice-presidents was left to the selection of the board, one to be chosen from each state.

On motion of Mr. Beauchamp, of Missouri, Mr. Failor was instructed to cast the ballot of the association for the re-election of Robt. J. Evans secretary and treasurer.

Nominations for members of the board were then called for and the election resulted in choosing Messrs. Keil, of Iowa; Davis, of Kansas; McFarland, of Missouri; Jones, of Indiana, and Louden, of Nebraska.

Mr. Jones, of Indiana, moved that an invitation be extended to the members of the American Duroc Jersey association to join us in the banquet Wednesday evening, Dec. 2, at the Grand Pacific, the hour being fixed at 10:30 to allow their association time to finish their meeting, which was to be held the same evening. Carried unanimously. Adjourned.

New Board Organizes.

Immediately after adjournment the members of the new board met and organized by selecting Mr. Keil, of Iowa, as chairman and Messrs. Keil, Jones and McFarland executive committee.

Mr. Jones moved that the board take steps at once to look after the judgeship at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition and all other matters pertaining to that show.

Moved by Mr. Jones that the recommendation of the meeting regarding the secretary's salary be accepted and his salary be made $1500 for the ensuing year. Keil moved that on account of the extra work occasioned by sales and shows and of the over abundance of such work that would fall to the secretary and assistants to do the coming year that his allowance for clerk hire be $500. Carried.

The board confirmed the action of the meeting in the election of officers and also selected the following vice-presidents:

Arkansas—G. T. Garvey.	Colorado—C. J. Cover.
Georgia—Z D. Respess.	Idaho—A. N. Godwin.
